

Election Day Checklist: August 8, 2026

Your Complete Guide to Voting in Osun State

What You Need to Bring

Required Documents

- Voter Card (INEC Voter Card - most important)
- National ID Card (Passport, Driver's License, or National Identification Number)
- Alternative ID (if you don't have a voter card)

Optional but Helpful

- Polling Unit Information (your assigned polling station address)
 - Pen (bring your own to avoid delays)
 - Face Mask (for health safety)

Before You Go

1. Find Your Polling Unit

- Visit www.lanrefarinloye.com/find-polling-unit
- Enter your LGA and Ward
- Note down your polling station address and location
- Take a screenshot or write it down

2. Plan Your Route

- Know how to get to your polling station
- Plan for traffic and travel time
- Leave early to avoid last-minute rush

3. Check Your Voter Registration

- Confirm you're on the voter register
 - Visit www.inecnigeria.org to verify
 - Contact INEC if you have questions

Polling Station Procedures

When You Arrive

1. Report to the Polling Agent

- Give your name and polling unit number
- They will verify your voter registration

2. Queue for Your Turn

- Wait in line with other voters
- Bring your voter card and ID

3. Proceed to Registration Table

- Present your voter card and ID
- INEC officials will verify your details
- Your name will be checked against the register

At the Voting Booth

1. Receive Your Ballot

- You'll get your ballot paper
- Go to the voting booth (private area)

2. Mark Your Vote

- Mark your choice clearly
- Follow the instructions on the ballot
- Do NOT mark multiple candidates

3. Cast Your Vote

- Place your ballot in the ballot box
- Your vote is now counted

4. Get Your Finger Marked

- Your finger will be marked with indelible ink
 - This prevents double voting

Expected Timeline

Morning (7:00 AM - 12:00 PM)

- 7:00 AM: Polling stations open
- 7:00-9:00 AM: Peak voting time (expect longer queues)
- 9:00 AM-12:00 PM: Moderate crowd

Afternoon (12:00 PM - 4:00 PM)

- 12:00-2:00 PM: Lunch break (some voters leave, shorter queues)
